ACTIVE SHOOTER/CHURCH SECURITY SEMINAR

On Saturday, May 5th, St. Mark Lutheran (5073 Daly Blvd.) will be hosting an Active Shooter/Church Security seminar that will start at 9 am.

The first part is going to focus on Personal Awareness and your Self-protection against an active shooter, whether you're at church, school, sports arena or the mall.

The second part will start the discussion on church organizational needs, for church security. In total it will run about 3 hours depending on interaction.

The presenter will be a retired State Police Trooper, Adam Ladd. We are going to have a free will offering.

To attend you must call the St. Mark office to register 810-736-6680 by April 30th. Office hours are 8 to 2:30, Monday through Friday. This will be a first come, first served as we have limited seating.
